Discussion Questions to Consider

Refer to the questions from last week.

1. Why is it so difficult for you to believe what God says about you???
2. Why do you continue to see yourself based on your past (which is past) rather on the reality of the Word that will never change???
3. What is your understanding of "perfection" and how can we attain "perfection" ?"
3. How does a healthy mind make a difference in your Vertical Relationship?
4. How do you navigate continuous issues successfully?
5. How did the woman with the issue of blood effect her own healing?
6. What is your responsibility after you have HEARD the Word?
7. Discuss the connection between your mind and your body. How is your spirit involved in the process?
8. What is God's answer for issues of the spirit and the mind?
9. When you read about the people in the Bible who were used mightily by God and you see that they all had issues, what is your understanding of how you can be used by God in spite of your past?
10. Someone said "God doesn't call the qualified; He qualifies the called." Explain in terms of people having issues
