ARE YOU WILLING TO LIVE FOR YOUR CREATOR?

Discussion Questions:

1. What from the lesson today touched your heart the most?
2. Am I waiting for my Creator to give me what is best for me? Or have I selfishly grabbed what I could and ran?
3. How much more have I suffered and put myself in situations not for me or good to me, because I was anxious and could not wait on my Creator's guidance and enlightenment? Reacted instead of Responded!
4. Am I willing to take the walk up the hill? Purpose, Suffering, Rise, Glory!
5. Am I in a Peter or a Judas moment? Each day brings different challenges, but how will I respond?
6. In my fallen state do I remember to hide in Christ and His sacrifice, or do I run in shame as if I have no hope? I need to keep on growing and renewing my mind...This is not my ending...just my beginning...God is not through with me yet!
7. Am I making the choice each day, hour, and minute to not only know God, your Creator, but live a life reflecting His image in my life?
