LESSON OUTLINE

We are embarking on the year 2022, this number means hope lies ahead

Hope= Confident expectation

You have to expect that God is True and just what he says he will do!

I. Predetermined Seasons

- There is a time and season for everything you go through
- When you walk with God; know that he is determined in his order of season and change.
- We have 4 seasons of life : Springtime, Summertime, Fall/Harvest, and Winter time.
- You are here by design which means there is a time for you being here that is by design.
- There is a plan for the season you are in but it is up to you to trust God in the season your going through.
- Do not worry about tomorrow because God has you placed in your right now season.
- Everything God creates has a season designed just for you. There is nothing you can or can not do to change where God has placed you.

II. Life’s Orderly Progression

- Your day is fixed there is an order to your design by the Lord
- Life is a divine gift given by God; everyone is here by design and at the correct time purposed by God.
- You can plan but God rules.
 - There are seasons of friendships
 - There are seasons to give and season to get
 - Everything does not require a response; tend to your own business
- Remember to do as the Bible says and bridle your tongue-Muzzle your tongue.
- The muzzle God gives is for your protection, sometimes you might need to refrain from speaking

There is a time....

A Time to dream

A Time to be sold

A time to be falsely accused

A time to unfairly judged

A time to be jailed

A time to be forgotten

A time to be remembered

A time to be restored

A time to be bought to the fulfillment of God’s purposed

As you reflect on your seasons of life do you see a pattern for which you were designed

- Do you find yourself stuck in a certain season of life?
- Are you allowing the past to control your predestined place and time?
- Once a season is over; you can’t recapture it.
- Each season you must work out what God is trying to teach you.
