

"GOD'S DAUGHTERS REIGNING AS HEIRS"

"Love and Forgiveness a way of life"

You can't live in forgiveness unless you choose to!

What will you choose?

1. God's way is the way!

- ❖ Be willing to put down your way and pick up God's way.
- ❖ Are you willing to walk in the way that God has taught you?
- ❖ There are only 2 ways- God's way and the narrow way.
- ❖ The enemy wants you to do things your way, but we are not our own and must do things God's way.
- ❖ If the object of your faith is you than you will miss the blessings prepared for you. Walk in the way that God has already given in his word.
- ❖ Search for God in every aspect of your life; God wants you to live abundantly.
- ❖ You must be an overcomer; walk by faith; choosing God's path for you!

2. To obey or not to obey!

- ❖ God is everywhere he is the only one who is everywhere at all times.
- ❖ Remember Jonah- Don't be fueled by hate so much that you try to run away from God's command.
- ❖ Don't try to run away from your enemies; pray for them!
- ❖ When you run away from God's way; you will find yourself in a P.I.T (personally, induced, turmoil)
- ❖ When you go your own way; you forsake the mercy that is extended to you by God the father.
- ❖ If you run away from God you forfeit the blessings already established for you life.

- ❖ Is living by your own accord worth the sacrifice of living by your feelings?
- ❖ Are you willing to forsake God's mercy for your fillings?
- ❖ Are you willing to disobey God's word for your own self-satisfaction?
- ❖ Be careful to not live for yourself.

3. The Principle of forgiveness

- ❖ Forgive one another! Be kind!
- ❖ To forgive means to give up something in exchange for something in return. (For= to offer up, Give= something in return)

There are 2 parts in the principle of forgiveness:

Acknowledgement & Confession

- ❖ Acknowledgement

1. Acknowledge your anger and sin!
2. Be willing to be obedient to confront your emotions.
3. Search for God's way!
4. Be willing to give up the hurt and anger.

- ❖ Confession

1. God knows what is in your heart; Quit holding on to unforgiveness!
2. Anger and unforgiveness is a sin; Stop pretending!
3. If Christ while on the cross could ask for forgiveness, who are you to hold on to things that have come across you?

Analogy- The Ball, The sewer, The chain

- ❖ The ball= The word of God
- ❖ The Sewer= The place of Unforgiveness
Sometimes we allow the ball to get away from us.
- ❖ The Chain= God's grace

When we reach for the ball, the chain will pull us up from our sewers; once we are pulled up we can win the prize and say we got it!

Don't allow your past to dictate the way you handle your future!

Anger will bind you to your past!

What you allow to control you will ultimately rule you!

Let go of your past; allow God to transform you!

Give up your anger so you can set yourself free!

When you forgive you allow God to heal your broken heart!

You can trade your ashes for true beauty!

You have to make the objective word your subjective truth!

Cast your sins as far as the East & West
East and West never meet up; cast your anger out!

Remember that there is a difference between confession and consequences!
God is not one who sits waiting for you to sin; God is love!

Give up the lesser (sin) for something greater(love)!

God is a loving God waiting for us to give up our own way for his way!

Will you allow anger to stay at your door(mind)?

Put off anger so that you may live in the way of the Lord!

God will always provide a way for you to come out of your anger; do God's will and he will create a path of forgiveness that will allow you to live abundantly.

Be a doer of God's word.
Let go of your unforgiveness because God gives to you!
Christ gave so you can forgive too!

You can do all things; even forgive!

Give everything over to God!
