Questions to Consider

1. Why is it so hard to control anger?
2. Is anger wrong or is there a time that you can use anger appropriately?
3. How do you "put off" anger?
4. Why is it hard sometimes to keep silent?
5. When you find that you are becoming angry, what can you do?
6. What is anger, and when does it become a problem?
7. Is it the "anger" that is the problem, or is it what happens as a result of being angry?
8. Read Eph. 4:26-27. What does it mean to you to "be angry and sin not?" What does it mean "Neither give place to the devil?"
9. When does "anger" become a sin?
10. What is the difference between being "angry" or being "mad?"
11. Give an example of anger under control.
12. Talk about "The Beauty of Holiness."

Definition for anger: feeling of displeasure or resentment

(Notice St. Mark 3:5 and St. John 2:13-16)
