

Sunday Morning Recap | February 6 / 2022 | “God’s Daughters Reigning as Heirs”

Lesson Continuation from January 31, 2022

You can offer up praise because you are alive if you don’t praise God than he will make the rocks cry out. Don’t allow a rock to out praise you!

1) Are you tired?

- You are saved when you obey the gospel; that is when you enter the race
- You are given the gift of the Holy Spirit which gives you strength to endure. Stay in the race
- We are changed by the gift of the Holy Spirit; it renews your mind
- You have to run this Christian race until you reach the end
- The Lord will refresh you when you get tired continue to fight like you’re the 3rd Monkey trying to get on the ark
- Encourage yourself as you walk with the Lord
- You have to endure during this life so you can be who God has purposed you to be.
- God knows everything you are going through he has predestined your path
- You are in God’s grace which means your covered!

Remember therefore

ThereforeYou can take pleasure in infirmities

Therefore.....You know God and the power of his might

Therefore.....You know that when I am weak he is strong

Therefore.....I place my faith in the son who saved me and sacrificed for me

Are you in the race to win it? What will your therefore be?

God knows what’s in-front of you; will you trust him to lead you?

- Remember you are an ambassador for the kingdom of God; your home is eternal, and you represent the King who is waiting for the appointed time to call you home

Sunday Morning Recap | February 6 / 2022 | “God’s Daughters Reigning as Heirs”

- Does your life represent the King that you are an ambassador for?
- Will you stand on the word while you are enduring the test?
- Do you believe that all things work together for your good?
- God has already made you aware of the enemies’ devices; stand firm and keep running your race
- Give God a hallelujah while you’re going through; it’s the highest form of praise, that is recognized anywhere you go
- You can endure when as long as your holdfast to your faith while running this race
- Learn to let go of things as your focus changes while you’re running the race, remember you are in it to win it.
- When you get weary remember Jesus; he endured the process to get the glory

Remember this race is about his will not yours!

When you keep running in the race you will get the reward that God has prepared for you....a mansion, a robe, and a crown.

Sistars you have to be in it to win it!

Are you in this race to win? Will you keep holding steady?
